STINGERS

Oct. 1, 2001

Football is moving up

Concordia's football team clinched the the first place in the QIFC following their 34-26 victory over the Bishop's University Gaiters on Sunday. With the McGill Redmen's win over the Rouge et Or, Concordia gains the sole spot for first place in QIFC and takes the seventh spot in the CIS. Concordia also broke a jinx of their own, as they haven't beaten Bishop's in Lennoxville since 1993.

Stinger quarterback John Kronemeyer threw three touchdown passes connecting with Brad Remus, Matt MacDonald and Ricky Martin. Rookie kicker, Rob McCallum accounted for 12 of the 34 points, including three field goals.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Sommer Christie of the women's rugby team and George Voulamanos of the men's rugby team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Oct. 1.

Christie, a third year fly-half, had two tries and two converts in the weekend game. The 22 year-old was instrumental in the 56-0 win over the Bishop's Gaiters. This summer, Christie played scrumhalf for the U-23 Canadian national team and was a member of the Quebec senior provincial team. A native of Wentworth, Quebec, Christie is in athletic therapy at Concordia.

Voulamanos, a third year wing, had two tries in Concordia's game over the weekend. The 22 year-old scored the winning try in the hard-fought 15-11 victory over the Bishop's Gaiters on Sunday. A native of Montreal, Voulamanos is an electrical engineering student.
